No bring ag of coul mor wood, no asie s, no dust; alway ready and PERFECTIAY SAFE weaks can be cooked in anorter time, and with - - , annoymace from hout, than by any other method. Where used they have given perfect adjunction; cost no greater than that of an orderary wood stove. Laction who have used them declare that they oto indispensable, especially in Summer, and they COULD NOT KEEP HOUSE

The Gas Company proposes to make a

NET PRICE OF $1.50 PER THOUSAND FEET,

From May 1 to Oct. 1, to ALL PERSONS USING FOR COOKING PURPOSES. Read the following opinions from well-known ladies who have used this Stoves

> R. J. STRATTON, Sapt, of Decatur Chalight and Coke Co.

B. J. Spratron, Sup't Dear Sir: I am using a No. 7 Gas Bange, and it is with pleasure that I bear witness to its many good qualities. For utility, cleanliness, confort and economy, it is all I could desire; my thing can be cooked on it that can be cooked on any stove, with, in my opinion, less expense, and certainly with less trouble and more confort. I cheerfully recommend it.

Yours Truly. MES. HENRY ELWOOD.

Ma. R. J. Structron, Singl. Dear Sir: I want to say to you that the gas stove you furnished to me last Summer is much more satisfactory than I had hoped for. I can do every kind of cooking with it, and the regularity of the heat gives botter results than any other stove. I should not desire to keep house without it.

MRS. FRANK H. HALL.

R. J. STRATTON, Supt. Dear Sir: I have in use one of your the Cooking Ranges and as a matter of convenience and comfort it is unsurpassed, and is all you claim for it—gas costing about the same as oil or coal. MRS, WM, PLUCK.

The Presidential Party En Route New York, April 27 .- There are little NEW YORK, April 27.—There are until or no signs of abatement in the rain-storm which began on Thursday night, and has continued uninterruptedly e. A drizzling rain prevails to-night. the decorations present a bedraggled appearance. The final arrangements for Change in the Detail of Army Offithe navat, military and civic parades were made to-day. Major-General Scho-field and his aides held a final meeting this afternoon at the Fifth-avenue Hotel Each and was assigned to certain troops with instruction to see that on Tuesday lecretary Blaine-Martial Law in Haynext they were properly landed and given their proper positions in the military pando, so that there will be no unnecessar delay in starting the procession promptly

The committee on States also held great hat in England On his opening meeting at the Fifth-avenue Hotel and great int in England. On his opening night hundreds were turned away from the Alexandria Theater in Livenpool, unable to gain admittance. During the performance of Shane in Livin, Mr. Scanone ried with the committees of the other States now in this city, and who will represent their respective States in the approaching celebration. Thus far small number of the Governors and Representatives have arrived aunouncement that the hour of starting of the Presidential party from Elizabeth-pert had been fixed an hour earlier than ens niginally named has caused consid enable grumbling. This change was made on account of the tide.
